

Financial Adviser Profile

Overview

With over 15 years' experience within the financial services industry, Chelsea provides her clients with specialised advice around Aged Care and Centrelink. Through her experience and passion to help others navigate this area, Chelsea finds purpose in delivering a consistent comprehensive service and support to her clients. Given the often emotional time around making these decisions, Chelsea prides herself in ensuring her clients understand the process and have clarity about the best steps forward.

CarePlan Advisory was established with the goal to provide guidance, support, and advice to those who are making important life and financial decisions, often at short notice. While Chelsea is professionally qualified to provide advice in this area, she has developed a true passion for helping others through this process based on her own personal experiences. Chelsea values developing a trusting and transparent relationship with her clients. This means you can concentrate on spending quality time with those that mean most to you, knowing the technical aspect is taken care of by the professionals.
